

Are You Eligible to Sign the Pledge?

Who can sign the pledge? Any business leader, and that term is defined broadly. As examples:

- The owner, manager, or supervisor of a business, nonprofit or government agency, or department/division
- A majority vote of the Board of Directors of any corporation
- A solo entrepreneur owning his or her own business: from a kid's corner lemonade stand to a multibillion dollar business
- An entertainer or athlete who engages in any business dealings
- Tomorrow's business leader: A student enrolled in any business class
- Any investor who uses investments to leverage policy (through socially responsible investing, organizing proxies, writing letters to influence corporate decisions, etc.)
- Anyone in a position of leadership If you have questions about whether you're eligible, please call 718-513-4648 or email: info@PrincipleCenteredLiving.com subject=May I Sign The Pledge

Thank you for participating in this long-term movement to make a better world.
